

HIGH FLYING—A view of Camas Days from the air. The first cars in the Country Days Parade wind their way down Fourth towards the crowds. This photograph was taken during the fly-over staged by the Camas-Washougal Aviation Association, it catches the parade at the intersection of Fourth and Franklin. Plane for the Post-Record was furnished by Floyd Krohn Flying Service.